At the 2025 Q1 Membership Meeting, we will be inviting guest presenters Roy Cohen, Lane Kelman, and Robbie O'Brien of Cohen Seglias. For more than 30 years, Cohen Seglias has laid a foundation of legal excellence in the construction industry. Roy and his team will be presenting on industry trends as well as policy changes, interest rates, and market confidence.

The meeting will start off with appetizers and an open bar so members can network with one another; afterwards, we'll open up the buffet and begin the presentation from Roy and his team, followed up by a Q&A, and more networking afterwards.
